Dear Kevin,

Ted Maddison spoke to me over the weekend. I expressed my willingness if we can find a time when we can both be free. And with my present limitations, which precludds even the use of tools, your offer is attractive.

As of now I do not know if the lawyer who handles my Freedom of Information cases is coming next weekend and if he is whether it will be Saturday or Sunday. However, if you want to try that soon, please phone. (473-8186.)

For when you do please also try to prepare what you'd like to go into. My time is limited. I'm working agains real pressure on a new book when I can't put in the hours I once did. I'm behind on some filing as much as four months, necessary reading has stacked, etc.

What I have in mind is trying to restrict yourself to what is not in my books or what you either may not understand or find incomplete. I think you can appreciate that time I take from more work to chew over what has been digested is not spent constructively, at least as I see it.

Thanks and best regards,

Harold Weisberg, 2/20/76